

Did you know?

from your Board of Directors

Usage and affiliates booking windows, Extraordinary Escapes™, Interval International® and Commonly asked questions.

- Not enough Resort Points? Through Embarc® Flexibility & Value, members have the option to top up their points by renting one-time use Resort Points for their vacation stays. This way, members can ensure their yearly vacation budget without having to borrow for the following Use Year.
- Members who plan ahead have much to look forward too. Embarc's flexible cancellation policy allows members to plan well in advance, and still have the peace of mind to cancel their reservations up to 30 days prior to arrival and get all of their Resort Points back.
- Visit your resort locations, just for the day. As a member privilege, Embarc® members have the option of Day Use to enjoy their resorts and amenities despite not having a reservation stay booked. Members may bring family and friends, but must be present. Availability is at the discretion of resort Management, where some limitations and fees apply. Members should contact Member Reception directly on the day of to inquire about availability, limits and fees.
- Have your heart set on that special vacation? Maybe it's a honeymoon or an anniversary. ExtraOrdinary Escapes™ members have the luxury of booking Interval International® reservations up to two years in advance. While inventory becomes available as timeshare owners deposit their weeks, members can place their pending requests up to 730 days in advance to establish priority in the queue. If you're first in line, you get the first pick of the lot!
- Members travel great distances to enjoy their resorts. They can rest their weary bones by stopping into one of their resorts to rest up for a couple of nights before and after their stay by booking a Consecutive Stay. For example, members can book minimum 2-night stays at Embarc® Vancouver directly before and/or after a qualifying 6-night (or more) stay at Embarc® Whistler, even outside of their 6-month booking window, so they can rest up after and before their flights home. Refer to your Embarc® Club Guidelines or call Member Services to inquire.
- If you find yourself suddenly free to get away, treat yourself to a visit to your resort locations through Getaway Time! Any member-owned inventory available within a 14-day window can be booked on cash at an incredible discounted rate. This privilege is a member benefit, which extends to member parents and adult children.
- Membership does have its privileges. Through Interval International®, ExtraOrdinary Escapes™ members not only have a world of travel available to them, but they have the benefit and perks of last minute vacation deals and even discounts on shopping and movies! Log onto your member website, launch Interval International®, and click on "Offers & Extras" and "Deals" to explore.
- Do you have a jet-set lifestyle? This benefit may be extremely limited depending on resort demand and season; however, Extraordinary Escapes members get a 50% Resort Points discount on any Interval International reservation confirmed within a 30-day window. It's that simple!

Commonly asked questions:

- Not sure how to get from Ixtapa-Zihuatanejo airport to Embarc® Zihuatanejo? We'll help arrange for a taxi to meet and greet you at the airport and get you safely to your home in paradise! Simply call your Embarc® Zihuatanejo Member Reception directly, or Member Services for details and fees.
- If you're travelling a ways to your resort and might not have time to stock the kitchen with the comforts of home, take advantage of The Pantry. Imagine arriving to your Vacation Home having your kitchen and fridge already stocked with simple items to help get your morning started the next day! Kindly look out for the order form accompanying your pre-arrival e-mail, or contact Member Reception directly.

